102	so and such
Α	Compare so and such :
	We use so + adjective/adverb: so stupid so quick so nice so quickly	We use such + noun: such a story such people We also use such + adjective + noun: such a stupid story such nice people
	<ul> <li>I didn't like the book. The story was so stupid.</li> <li>Everything happened so quickly.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>I didn't like the book. It was such a stupid story. (not a so stupid story)</li> <li>I like Liz and Joe. They are such nice people. (not so nice people)</li> </ul>
		We say such a ( not a such): such a big dog
В	So and such make the meaning stronger:
	<ul> <li>I've had a busy day. I'm so tired.         (= really tired)</li> <li>It's difficult to understand him. He talks so quietly.</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>We had a great trip. We had such a good time. (= a really good time)</li> <li>You always think good things are going to happen. You're such an optimist.</li> </ul>
	You can use so that :  I was so tired that I fell asleep in the armchair.	You can use such that :  It was such nice weather that we spent the whole day on the beach.
	We usually leave out that :  ☐ I was so tired I fell asleep.	We usually leave out that :  It was such nice weather we spent
С	So and such also mean 'like this':
	<ul> <li>Somebody told me the house was built 100 years ago. I didn't realise it was so old. (= as old as it is)</li> <li>I'm tired because I got up at six. I don't usually get up so early.</li> <li>I expected the weather to be cooler. I'm surprised it is so warm.</li> </ul>	☐ I didn't realise it was such an old house . ☐ You know it's not true. How can you say such a thing ? (= a thing like this)  Note the expression no such : ☐ You won't find the word 'blid' in the dictionary. There's no such word . (= this word does not exist)
D	Compare:
	so long  I haven't seen her for so long I've forgotten what she looks like.	such a long time  I haven't seen her for such a long time. (not so long time)
	so far	such a long way  I didn't know it was such a long way.
	so much, so many l'm sorry l'm late – there was so much traffic.	such a lot (of)  l'm sorry l'm late – there was such a lot of traffic.
